MORE EXAMPLES OF “AMEN”

In some other interesting and helpful passages...

Instead of saying, "Amen, Amen" Jeremiah paraphrased the second Amen in his statement, "Amen, the Lord do so" (Jer 28:6).

One of God's names or titles is "The God of Truth". If we left the last word untranslated, the title would read, "The God of Amen" (Isa 65:16).

Paul uses the word as an affirmation when he says of Christ, "For as many as may be the promises of God, in him they are 'yes' and in him 'Amen'" (2Co 1:20).

One of the names of Jesus is "The Amen, the Faithful and True Witness" (Rev 3:14).

These passages show us that the word “Amen” is a solemn affirmation of truth.

It is a special word that we can use whenever we have said (or heard) something that is true before God.

Amen

www.simplybible.com

A thousand page Australian website based in Childers Queensland.
Dedicated to teaching the scriptures. A resource to help others around the world share the word of Christ.

The Last Word (Amen)

By Ron Graham

There's a word at the end of every prayer, the word “Amen”. Where did this word come from, why do we say it, and what does it mean?

THE ORIGIN OF THE WORD “AMEN”

The word “Amen” makes its first appearance in the Bible under the most solemn circumstances.

When a husband accused his wife of adultery, and she protested her innocence, and she had not been caught in the act, the matter was settled by God under the test of bitter water (Num 5:12-31).

The woman was taken to the priest, and the priest put her under oath. She submitted to a ceremony in which she drank some water containing dust from the tabernacle floor.