The Heavenly Eden

By Ron Graham

At the beginning of the Bible there is the earthly Garden of Eden (Gen 2:7-10). At the end of the Bible is its counterpart, the heavenly Eden (Rev 22:1-5).

The vision of the new Eden was the final vision that John saw.

A NEW EDEN

“He showed me a river, clear as crystal. Its water was the water of life. The river came out from the throne of God and from the Lamb. It flowed down the middle of a wide avenue.

Along the river banks, on either side, grew the tree of life. The tree bore twelve kinds of fruits. Every month it bore fruit. The leaves of the tree healed people of every nation.”
