Worship Before God’s Throne

When John records the last vision in Revelation, a vision of the kingdom of Christ, he writes, “The throne of God and of the Lamb shall be there. His slaves will worship him” (Rev 22:3-5).

Even while we are still on earth and do not yet see his face, we can worship him. In God's word, we find six ways in which we worship God...

1. Prayer with thanksgiving (Philippians 4:4-7)
2. Singing spiritual songs (Ephesians 5:18-20)
3. Hearing God's word (Romans 10:11-16)
4. The Lord's Supper (1 Corinthians 11:23-30).
5. Offering of Money (1 Corinthians 16:1-2, 2 Corinthians 9:5-11)
6. Doing good works daily (Titus 2:11-14)

In God’s Very Presence

By Ron Graham

This lesson is a companion to “The Heavenly Eden” about the final vision that John saw and recorded in the book of Revelation (Rev 22:1-5). John told of the wide avenue with the river of living water and the tree of life along its banks all coming from the throne of God. Now John describes...

LIFE IN THE NEW EDEN

“In this garden there will be no more curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be there. His slaves will worship him. They will see his face. His name will be on their foreheads.

There is no night there. No one will need a lamp or light of the sun. The Lord God will shine on them. They will reign with him forever and ever.”
