In the Bible, we can read about the church that Jesus built. We can learn what it was like. Here are just some of its marks...

Preaches the gospel that Christ died on the cross for our sins, was raised from the dead, ascended to the throne of God, and will return to judge the world. (Acts 2:23-24, 32-33, 1Co 15:3-4, 1Th 4:16-17, 2Tm 4:1)

Practices immersion in water in the name of Christ, of repentant believers, for the remission of sins. (Acts 2:38, Rom 6:3-4)

Uses scriptural names and descriptions for the church, and refuses all names invented by men. The latter divide, whereas names and terms used by inspired writers are not divisive. (Acts 11:26, Rom 16:16, 1Co 1:10-13)

In this lesson we continue to study the Bible's last words (Revelation 22:6-21).

Some of these words are John's, some are the angel's, and some are the direct words of Jesus himself.

You will recall that this passage may be divided into three parts:

1. A conversation between the angel and John with an endorsement interjected by Jesus (Rev 22:6-11).
2. A final message from Jesus Christ himself (Rev 22:12-17).

We have already considered (in part 1) the last words of John and of the angel.

Now we pay attention to the last words of our living Lord Jesus Christ.
