God's Power In Us

A lesson from Colossians

By Ron Graham

In his letter to the Colossians, Paul is very conscious of God's power at work in the faithful Christian.

Paul says that we can be...

“filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding... strengthened with all power according to his glorious might” (Colossians 1:11).

We are very blessed with the knowledge and power God has imparted to us, and which dwells richly in us.

In this study, we are going to look at this empowerment from six aspects which Paul urges us to appreciate.
