The Source of Sin

By Ron Graham

When Paul writes to the Romans, he is dealing with the problem of sin.

Paul discusses sin from two aspects:

(1) The source of sin is Satan's lies.
(2) The solution to sin is Christ's death.

In which will you choose to live? Choose well! In this lesson we consider the Source of sin.

God’s law is not the source of sin

Where there is no law, there is no sin imputed (Rom 4:15).

We might mistake this to mean that God's law is the source of sin, because only when a law is made is sin imputed.

But does Paul say "Until the law sin was NOT in the world"? No, he says, "Until the law sin WAS in the world" (Rom 5:13).
